Introduction

My name is Jenny Ivory and I am the owner of Adventure Kids. I also own Little Gaddesden Preschool and Forest School. I have lived in the local area for my whole life and have over 15 years of childcare experience and a First-Class BA Hons Degree in Education.

With a young family of my own I have become aware of the increasing demand for affordable and flexible wrap around care for families. This led to the creation of Adventure Kids in 2018.

I am a huge advocate of the benefits that being outdoors has on our well-being and believe that all children should be able to access experiences within nature and the outdoors.

I aim to provide a safe, fun, engaging environment where children can:
